

Luxury mountain holiday hideaway

Located one and a half hours south-west of Brisbane and surrounded by World Heritage-listed Main Range National Park, Peppers Spicers Peak Lodge is a luxurious mountain getaway with a focus on fine food and wine. Situated 1130m above sea level, the lodge is Queensland's highest mountain retreat and has expansive views.

Featuring high ceilings, fireplaces and stylish decor, the lodge exudes an intimate and relaxing ambience.

By day relax and rejuvenate in luxurious surrounds or enjoy a wide range of outdoor pursuits.

By night guests can sample the award-winning cuisine, relax by the fire or enjoy the clear mountain skies.

Featuring only 10 exclusive suites each with magnificent views, the lodge is a contemporary, classic design with a strong emphasis on natural materials such as stone, timber, tin and glass to complement the setting. On the culinary front, there's everything from seven-course degustation menus to gourmet picnic hampers. The restaurant has claimed the coveted overall Best Restaurant and House of Hospitality crowns at the Restaurant and Catering Queensland regional awards two years in a row.

For holiday pampering, the lodge offers a range of body treatments such as relaxation massages, Balinese Body Palming, Hahana stone massages, spa treatments and facials.

For sporty travellers, there's numerous bush walking, mountain biking and four wheel drive trails in the surrounding secluded valleys or the retreat's sunken tennis court and an infinity edge swimming pool.
